

KEY FACTS

- Isolation → different selection pressures → genetic divergence → cannot interbreed → new species
- Reproductive isolation can be geographic, behavioural or genetic

KEY TERMS

Speciation	Formation of new species through reproductive isolation
Reproductive isolation	Inability of two populations to interbreed successfully

■ EXAM TIP: 4 steps: isolation → different selection → genetic divergence → cannot interbreed. All needed.